The history of the Northeastern portion of North America, particularly during the intermittent warfare between the French & English colonies, is full of kidnapping, particularly by the Indian allies. In many cases such captives were held for ransom or sold to the highest bidder as a slave. When the French <sup>Indians</sup> raided Deerfield on 29 Feb., 1704, and escaped, so it is said, one hundred and twelve captives, some of whom died on the way to Canada. Schenectady had been similarly raided. and between 80 and 90 captives carried to Canada. There were many smaller raiding parties, chiefly Indian, who fell on isolated houses and communities, carrying away women & children. Our story books and histories are full of such episodes. They are read and forgotten, except when they might

The history of the institution of slavery in America is a subject of deep interest and importance. It is a subject which has been the subject of much discussion and controversy. The institution of slavery has been the source of much suffering and pain to the people of America. It has been the cause of many of the evils which have plagued our country. The institution of slavery has been the cause of the degradation of the colored people of America. It has been the cause of the loss of the rights of the colored people of America. It

The Samuel Johnson Papers do not record any reply to this

John Casparus Tugennoot was pastor of the Dutch Reformed Church at Claverack, from whence came many of our Loyalist ancestors, for instance, Van Dusen, Ernestine
Miller, Van de Kar, Snyder Buys (Boyce) Sharp, Baker
Comer Hogeboom, Charters, Huyck, George, Williams
McKinney, Storms Finkle. In fact the Rev. Tugennoot

~~Moreover,~~

There is, however, a much closer connection with this part of Ontario. The pastor's son, or <sup>was it</sup> nephew, John Adam Fiermonth, later known as Finnerwood, was a Loyalist settler in Ennesbrough. Esther, his first wife ~~and evidently~~ ~~the mother of his~~ <sup>older</sup> children, was buried on Amherst Island 11 March 1800. He later married Mary Moore, ~~the mother of his~~

But what is equally strange is that descendants of Fryenmoet, the writer of the letter was the pastor of the Frimewood Family.

Albany State Library, 929.2 F911.

1. An English officer named Friermouth, who was stationed at the fort at Barryfield, suburb of Kingston, Ont. It is unknown who he married, or whether he had other children than his son, Adam. Adam at least had a half-sister, Mrs. John Nuttall. The officer is said to have returned to England.
2. Adam, or John Adam Friermouth (son of the British officer, Friermouth), who came from England with his father and remained, marrying against his father's wishes, a beautiful Welsh girl named Mary Moore. As the ~~record~~ record of this marriage was not found, on investigation of the Church of England archives at Barryfield or of the Cathedral at Kingston, it is possible they crossed the St. Lawrence, and were married in New York State, as was their son in after years. The recollections of Mrs. Mary Munk and Mrs. Lathrop indicate that they possessed property, including a plantation and slaves, in Georgia, near Savannah. As has been stated, the father is said to have died on his way to Georgia, but the mother of the two children died in Canada, in Leeds or Frontenac Counties, and the orphans were brought up there by relatives.

Esther Frimewood Kyes told her daughter that Adam Friermouth died in 1808 and his wife in 1812.

Children:

1. John Adam Frimewood, born probably at Barryfield, suburb of Kingston, Ont., in 1800. Married Lovina Losee, in New York State, over the river from Kingston. Died at Big Rock, Iowa, in Oct., 1880. Left nine children who lived.
2. Esther Frimewood, born Aug. 9, 1802, at Barryfield, suburb of Kingston. Married Ephraim Kyes about 1819 at Escott, Leeds Co., Ont. Died at Ovid, Mich., Apr. 11, 1890. Nine children.

Elizabeth, daughter of John Adam Friermouth, U.E., married Michael Davy, of Ernest Town.
